Hello, Beth. As I stated to Mr. Alexander, I cannot come even close to accommodating this request in three days in light of my current workload as well as the length of this request, among other things. I have started to work on it some in between. I am aware of the need for the transcripts based on Mr. Alexander's previous email and I'll do what I can to get them to you before your deadline. That's the best I can do at this point. Thanks.
